

00:36:11 Amy de la Salle: Well DONE Darryl!!! You have done the collaboration justice.

00:40:09 Jennifer Herring: Have you thought about presenting to SJUSD and Twin Rivers as well?

00:41:15 caroline.digman: I don't have a question as much as a request for a convo. Lol I'd love to connect, Darryl. I'm in San Juan Unified.

00:41:45 Jennifer Herring: Reacted to "I don't have a quest..." with 👍

00:56:49 Ryan Mallory - the Center: Great question Elise, I was actually wondering the same thing about engaging CTA in the development process

00:59:13 Scott Richards: Are you planning to introduce a new bill at the start of the next session?

00:59:30 Tami Wilson: Just last week cabe did a webinar "Debunking Science of Reading Neuroscience" - not too sure about receptivity

01:00:54 Sabrina Cisneros: Can you share that link?

01:00:59 Shirlee Tully: I have to leave early to get to another commitment. I am grateful for the work you all do!

01:01:27 Elise Spang: If anyone wants to see the webinar, here's a link:
https://www.gocabe.org/no_on_ab2222/

01:02:50 Dominique Donette(she/her): Replying to "Are you planning to ..." yes, Scott!

01:02:57 Jennifer Herring: Reacted to "yes, Scott!" with 💜

01:03:06 Axel Diaz: Reacted to "If anyone wants to s..." with ❤️

01:03:26 caroline.digman: I spoke with 2 rep council members about why CTA opposed screening for so long. 1 didn't know anything about SOR. 1 was very open that it was never about screening it was a philosophical standpoint that CTA doesn't want to be compelled to do xyz and screening would mean compelling instructional changes =/ I expect it will be the same in the future....

01:04:39 Jennifer Herring: Reacted to "I spoke with 2 rep c..." with 😞

01:06:26 Tami Wilson: I think the biggest challenge we have is around "implementation" - many districts will state they are SOR, but the implementation at site/classroom level has huge variation.

01:06:27 Jennifer Herring: I feel like sending them all some textbooks with the decades of research. Haha.

01:09:18 Dominique Donette(she/her): Replying to "I think the biggest ..." this is feedback we have been thinking through.

01:10:04 Dominique Donette(she/her): Nice meeting you all-thank you for the questions and conversation. My email is: dominique@edvoice.org I'm based in Sacramento and would love to learn about the work you all are doing!

01:11:26 Scott Richards: Do we have a list of SOR curriculum that schools use or can use in Sac?

01:12:12 Tami Wilson: Great meeting - thanks! I have to jump off

01:12:14 Dominique Donette(she/her): i have to jump in a few minutes

01:13:11 Amy de la Salle: Scott, the reading League is releasing a curriculum navigation tool today as a meter of fact!! That means there might be a list of SoR curriculum.

01:13:41 Scott Richards: Oh perfect, I'll keep an eye out for it!

01:13:43 Tami Wilson: Great event April - yay!

01:13:44 Jennifer Herring: Replying to "Scott, the reading L..."

I went to that meeting this morning. They released a review of 7 curricula. It's a great tool!

01:14:21 Tami Wilson: Kareem Weaver will be presenting at our Sacramento County READS event on May 8

01:14:30 Dominique Donette(she/her): Reacted to "Kareem Weaver will b..." with

01:14:43 Elise Spang: Replying to "Scott, the reading L..."

Me too! It's a great tool. Here are the reviews they've done so far:

https://www.thereadingleague.org/compass/curriculum-decision-makers/#toc_The_Reading_Leagues_Curriculum_Navigation_Reports

01:14:48 Dominique Donette(she/her): thank you again for having me today.